Park Names Open To Suggestions

Named a park lately?

Placentia's Park Naming Committee is asking local residents to suggest permanent names for four local parks. They are presently unofficially called Goldenrod, Wagner, Santa Fe and Bradford Parks.

Goldenrod is east of Kraemer Boulevard and north of Alta Vista in a residential neighborhood; Wagner is just north of Wagner Elementary School, facing homes; Santa Fe is at the west end of Santa Fe Street, just east of Placentia Avenue in a residential neighborhood and Bradford Park surrounds the Bradford Heritage Home, between Bradford Avenue and Kraemer Boulevard on Palm Drive. It also is fronted by homes.

In naming the parks, citizens might be guided by the fact that present city policy suggests that the names be reasonably related to the heritage of the Placentia area, reflecting such characteristics as pioneer families, streets bordering the parks, service organizations, topography, special themes or renowned citizens of the community.

Suggestions should be submitted to the Parks Naming Committee in care of City Hall by Friday, January 8th, the committee advises.

City Hall Closes For Holidays

Placentia's City Hall will be closed Monday, December 24 and Christmas Day, December 25. Offices, however, will be opened again on Friday, December 26.

Placentia is seeking applicants for 35 additional temporary enumerators needed for the Special 1976 Census.

The enumerators will conduct the census on a door to door basis. The job will last approximately two weeks and pays $2.35 an hour. Crew leaders will receive $2.70 an hour.

Enumerators must be willing to work six hours a day including evenings and Saturdays. Applicants must be at least 18 years old and physically able to do considerable walking and climbing of stairs, the city's planning department reports.

Applications are available at City Hall.

THE WONDER OF CHRISTMAS--Miss Amy Erikson, aged 2½, very carefully places an ornament on her family Christmas Tree in Placentia, joining the thousands of local families who will be celebrating the very special day Thursday.

Greetings To Everyone From Mayor, Council

We extend to all the residents of Placentia, our sincere best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

We wish to thank all the people who have worked so hard to make this community the beautiful place that it is. People who have left us during the year, like Florence Robinson and Ed Backs, will be missed, but in their place are others willing to give their time and energies to help us all.

"Peace on Earth" has been made to work all year round.

We have come through a year of local, national and international turmoil, but as we approach the year of our City's 50th Anniversary, we have reason to be confident and hopeful.

May you and your families enjoy the Holiday Season to its fullest, and have a happy and prosperous 1976.

Effort To Save Home Continues

An effort to arouse public interest in preserving the Bradford House, has met with some success, Sylvia Hoskins, president of the Founders Society said this week.

The local group recently sponsored a luncheon to which business and civic leaders were invited. The effort was aimed at soliciting assistance in saving the homestead of Albert S. Bradford, founder of the city of Placentia.

The two-story green house is located between Bradford Avenue and Kraemer Boulevard on Palm Drive. The house and grounds around it have been presented to the city of Placentia by Bradford heirs.

Mrs. Hoskins said that 200 invitations were issued to the luncheon with about 25 people attending. From these individuals, $250 in additional pledges has been received. [Continued On Page 2]

Trash Fees Accelerate 25.7%

Ignoring a staff recommendation to hold the boost to 14 per cent, the Placentia City Council Tuesday night unanimously approved a hike in trash collection bills of 25.7 per cent.

The increase, which will go into effect on January 1, 1976, was requested by Raul Rangel, a Placentia resident and vice president of Anaheim-based Jaycox Disposal Company, which serves the city.

The boost will raise residential collection bills to $2.20 a month. They now are $1.75.

Rangel, who introduced himself as "your resident garbologist" reminded the council of the toll of inflation and the recent "work stoppage, which was caused by the Teamster's Union."

Rangel mentioned also increased insurance rates and cost of equipment. "We purchased a truck in November of 1973 for $33,000. Our last quotation on that same vehicle has advanced over $50,000.

"Taking into consideration all of the other utilities, we believe ours by far is the cheapest of all," Rangel continued.

The trash disposal company has serviced Placentia for 17 years with an annual increase in costs around 2½ per cent per year.

Scarpas - Council Engage In Sharp Public Clash

"If the Scarpas or anyone else feel that I have done anything dishonest, illegal, broken a law or have a conflict of interest, I will gladly meet them down at the district attorney's office at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and you can press charges."

The challenge was thrown out Tuesday night by Placentia City Councilman Robert Langer, in answer to charges in a letter written by Jack and Bonnie Scarpa and circulated to local newspapers and the city council.

"Any citizen who questions my decisions, the rationale for my decisions, who questions my honesty or my integrity, they've got a fight...so this is a put up or shut up situation!," Langer continued.

There were no indications this week that the Scarpas, who have had a running feud with the council over the past year, had either acknowledged or accepted the challenge.

The quietly pronounced blast from Councilman Langer, over the most recent Scarpa correspondence, follows a year of dissension between the Scarpas and the council.

The original focal point was the council's denial to permit the Scarpas to establish their Herbert Hawkins Real Estate Office in Placentia's Town Center development, south of Yorba Linda Boulevard, just west of Kraemer Boulevard in a free standing building. The Scarpas took this denial to the courts.

Langer in his Tuesday night statement added: "I feel that all the poison pen letters that have been addressed to the city council, by the Scarpas, are full of emotion, innuendos, half truths, sarcasm and deliberate attempt to embarrass and

Hawks Win All But Last One

BY BRIAN HILDERBRAND

A disappointment to the football team, who had worked so hard and meshed so well all year, the Golden Hawks dropped their last game Friday night, with a dull thud of 27 to 9.

The Sonora Raiders at the same time, picked up their first CIF 2A championship football crown before a roaring crowd of almost 8,000 fans crowded into the La Mirada District Stadium.

It was a lackluster night for the Golden Birds, who found it difficult to do what they wanted to do. Star, Jim Haynie, who in the semifinal CIF contest with Agoura had personally carried the pigskin over the touchdown line five times, Friday night did not make it into the end zone once. His longest run for the evening, set against a school record 1,456-yard season total, was 11 yards.

The Hawks earlier in the year, in league play had barely nosed past Sonora with a 7 to 6 tally, but history was not to repeat itself so easily. Haynie and fullback Todd Peterson as seniors, will not see more El Dorado High School play, but are certain to be heard from in college circles if they so desire.

The one-sided game also broke the Hawks 11 game winning streak, carefully nurtured by both team and capable coach Glen Hastings. (Details on the Sports Pages).

IN THE CHRISTMAS TRADITION--of Redeemer Lutheran Church, the Altar Guild, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold Rees, recently decorated the sanctuary Christmas tree with hand made Chrismons. Chrismons, or "Christ Monograms" are made in combinations of white and gold. White, the liturgical color for Christmas -- our Lord's purity and perfection. Gold -- Christ's majesty and glory. The lights refer to Christ as the "Light Of The World." Shown here with the tree are Eleanor Gohr [seated] and Lydia Druwe. [Details on Page 2].

Key Ranch To Become Museum

Acquiring the 2½-acre George Key Ranch in Placentia, for use as an Orange County museum, was approved last Tuesday by the Orange County Board of Supervisors.

The property, on Bastanchury Road, near the northwest corner of the city, will be purchased with cooperation of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. George G. (Hannah) Key, who live on the site.

The grounds, in orange groves, contain the Key Home, which has housed three generations of Keys and was built in 1898 by Key's father.

The property also contains a lifetime collection of historic and nostalgic memorabilia which Key has gathered on the premises.

Larry Leaman, manager of pubic facilities operation for Orange County said that the estimated cost of the property is $125,000, although that is just a tentative figure.

It also has been projected that providing a groundskeeper and park ranger could cost in the neighborhood of $17,000 a year for the upkeep of the acreage.

Just how the property will be acquired will be worked out at a future date, Leaman stated. Plans are for Mr. and Mrs. Key to live in the house through their lifetimes, serving as curator and caretaker for the museum.

The ranch will probably be open only by appointment as it is now, specializing mainly in group tours rather than individual ones.

The ranch has already been placed on the National Register of Historic Places. The National Register officially recognizes the historical, archeological or cultural significance of a building, making it eligible for consideration for funding under the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966. Only 330 buildings and sites in the United States are so designated. (Picture on page 2).

Christmas Tree Decorated With Christian Symbols

A unique Christmas Tree, decorated with hand made Christmas symbols, is now on display at the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Placentia.

The special decorations are known as Chrismons or Christ's monograms. All are made in combinations of white and gold and number as many as 48 different varieties.

The cross is a popular form with 24 different styles and more than 50 variations. Three different stars are other decorations as well as a variety of monograms and liturgical symbols. Among these are three interlacing circles, a fish, fleur-de-lis, lamb, ship, bell, lamp, butterfly, angel, dove, chalice, candle, triangle, grapes and the crown, a booklet describing the tree, enumerates.

Scarpas - Council In Clashing Dialogue

intimidate the council...all because the Scarpas were denied a real estate office in the Town Center and then lost their case in court. (They have since been permitted an office across the street.)

"To me, these attacks on the city council are vindictive and smell of sour grapes. I really feel sorry for the Scarpas that they have to resort to such unscrupulous tactics in order to gain attention, because the people of Placentia have always seen through such tripe to learn what the facts really are. Truth, honesty and dignity always win in the long run. That's all I have to say."

The Scarpas are frequent attenders at city council and planning commission meetings and have spoken on a variety of subjects over the past year.

One of the Scarpa's current efforts is in regard to the city council's purchase of five acres of ground immediately north of the city's new Civic Center Complex. This was the main subject of their last correspondence which noted "the strange circumstances surrounding the five acre purchase."

Langer, the only councilman to vote against the five acre purchase, accepted the challenge. Tuesday night's session also included some verbal fisticuffs between Bonnie Scarpa, who was the main spokesman for the Scarpas, and Mayor Pro Tem Michael Callahan, later bringing Mrs. Scarpa back to the lectern after the discussion was closed.

Following a remark by Mayor Pro Tem Michael Callahan, concerning a former request by Mrs. Scarpa, Callahan asked the mayor "if this is a public meeting or a public hearing." He then said. "OK, this is a resolution in a public meeting."

Mrs. Scarpa then left her seat and returned to the microphone and addressed the chair: "Mr. Mayor, I would like to comment on Councilman Callahan. He's being sarcastic and...." The Mayor then gavelled the meeting back to order.

"I'd appreciate that very much, Mr. Mayor, thank you," Mrs. Scarpa addressed the chair then demanded...."Would you ask Mr. Callahan to be quiet?"

Councilman Langer, who had asked that the last Scarpa correspondence be placed on the agenda for discussion, began his statement by asking the city attorney if the purchase of the five acres of property was legal. Answer, it was.

Also, by soliciting from the city administrator if the council, in the purchase, acted in a good, sound and acceptable business like manner and following past procedures. Answer: they did.

"My third concern," the Langer statement continued, "is that the Scarpa letter questions my honesty and integrity by such quotes as 'strange circumstances surrounding the five acre purchase'...'they purchased the five acres at a shocking $85,000 an acre'...'deliberate coverup'...'a deliberate attempt to fool the deliberate attempt to fool the public'....'according to the law a city must have a reason for purchasing property'....'and now comes the rip-off', et cetera."

"Let's take a few minutes to examine some of the statements contained in the Scarpa letter and the facts that were, I feel, purposely omitted to embarrass, ridicule and intimidate the council and to deceive the public," the Langer statement continued, saying that he was taking the quotations out of context.

" 'Empty offices abounded:' The fact is that when the five acres was purchased, there were two empty offices....one for the full time city attorney, which some day we will have, and the other one is being used by city council members. I think anticipating future requirements is prudent planning to me, and I feel this is a gross overstatement.

" 'They purchased the five acres at a shocking $85,000 an acre.' The Scarpas very conveniently neglected to mention that an appraiser was hired by the city to determine the market value, because I recall that the Founders K (owners of the property) wanted $125,000 an acre. The fact is, the city hired J. Patrick Gavin to make a market value appraisal on the five acres for three reasons.'"

"First reason was, as the city administrator has indicated, it is the standard procedure on the city's part, to obtain an appraisal for the acquisition of land or buildings.

"Second, because none of us up here are experts in determining what land values are and it just makes good business sense to hire an appraiser, to protect the interest of the city. Using the market data approach to value, the appraisal established the market value of the five acres to be $85,000 per acre or $2 per square foot...not some magical number that was plucked out of the air by the council or staff.

"Quote: 'At the so called public hearings again, not one word was ever mentioned by any councilman, mayor, city official, or member of the audience about buying the five acres.' This statement would lead the public to believe that the five acres was mainly purchased by unanimous vote of the council without any discussion.

"Nothing could be further from the truth. In fact," Langer contiued, "it was I who raised the question at the public hearings on the Capital Improvement Element, whether the land should be purchased and it was I who voted against the purchase.

"Quote: 'That to us is a deliberate coverup, a deliberate attempt to fool the public.' The facts do not bear out this statement to be truthful.

"In fact," Langer continued, "How can you have a cover-up when the four local newspapers have been carrying articles regarding the purchase for ten months (starting in August, 1974 through May, 1975.)

"The reporters who cover our city do an outstanding job in obtaining facts through probing, investigating, asking pointed and direct questions when they are not satisfied with our answers, believe me, they get on us. These reporters would be the first ones to make the council or staff account for any cover up."

"Quote: 'Now comes the rip-off': The people of Placentia were not ripped off. They simply paid the market value established by the appraiser. There are some allegations about shenanigans pulled off by Founders K and some of those other people. The internal manipulations between the Kraemer family members is really not a matter for the city. That is a matter between them and the taxing agencies that are concerned," Langer stated.

In rebuttal, Mayor Lyons told Mrs. Scarpa: "I'll give you five minutes."

"Thank you Mr. Mayor," Mrs. Scarpa replied. "How long did he have?", indicating Councilman Langer.

Mrs. Scarpa stated: "At no time did Jack or I or any other citizen of this town, have the opportunity to talk about the purchase of the five acres."

I sat in the audience and I read the legal ads and I defy anyone to read the legal ads as they are published by this city and understand them.

"There are just two things I would like to see changed. I would like to see the legal ads on the capital amendment plan and I would like to see them itemized."

Councilman Jack Gomez interjected: "Bonnie, you would find something else to castigate."

Mrs. Scarpa: "Maybe I would."

Mayor Lyons: "Let Mrs. Scarpa make her recommendations."

Mrs. Scarpa: "And then you can ignore it...is that it?"

Mrs. Scarpa continued: "The second thing I would like for you to do is make a public announcement prior to the public hearing exactly what the public hearing will pertain to."

Mrs. Scarpa then added: "Mayor, I never had an opportunity to talk to you about those five acres, because I think if I had, things might have been different."

Councilman Gomez: "Do you really think that any of us up here are crooks enough to get into a deal and be benefitted by that purchase? Answer me and don't worry about it. Whatever your answer is, is fine. But don't accuse me of being dishonest. You can say I'm dumb and ignorant and everything else, but don't accuse me of being dishonest."

Jack Scarpa interjected: "You and the city council are the stewards of the taxpayers money and I think the Founders K had a field day on that five acres."

GEORGE GILMAN KEY, on the Placentia ranch where his father lived before him and grew oranges, is shown here on the grounds of the Key Home with a unique item from his collections--an 1886 Acme Squirrel and Gopher Smoker. The ranch and possessions now scheduled to become an Orange County museum.

Condominiums Approved Near Yorba Linda

An opening wedge of 6½ acres of condominiums, into the undeveloped southeast corner of Placentia, near the Yorba Linda border, was unanimously approved Tuesday night by the Placentia City Council.

The development encompasses only 5.6 dwelling units per acre in a zone that permits 8 to 10.

Acreage adjacent to the condominiums, which will be built by architect H.C. Tan of Anaheim, has been a subject for confrontation by Yorba Linda neighbors who live on adjoining half acre lots. The development also is close to Yorba Linda's horse country.

There were no protestors at the Tuesday hearing regarding the 37 planned units, which will be built on the southeast corner of Mariposa and Highland Avenues. The units will contain two and three bedrooms and will include two car garages.

Trash Hike

ing the staff report, pointed out that the 25 per cent increase Jaycox hoped to gain is a vast increase over the usual boost.

An effort by Councilman Robert Langer to gain a commitment from Rangel that the higher increase of 25.7 per cent, which the company requested, would be extended throughout the lifetime or the three year contract, ending January 31, 1979, was introduced in his motion. The effort, however, brought some protests from Councilmen Jack Gomez and George De Jesus.

Rangel answered Councilman Langer's questions about additional increases during the life of the contract with: "The rate we are requesting is compatible to the rates in Orange County and we feel that we can live out the remainder of the contract....We have experienced two years in the red. That is why I'm here."

"What we're asking for rounds out to someplace in the vicinity of eight cents a week."

Mayor Robert Lyons: "My personal opinion is that we get tremendous service. I know that they follow up on their complaints. They have a lot of initiative in handling the trash situation. It is a franchise holder without any problems and I would like for the council to approve their rate increase they have asked for."

Councilman Jack Gomez: "I don't think it's fair to lock in Jaycox through 1979. I hate to box them in and say 'you can't have anymore.'"

Councilman George De Jesus: "I concur with Councilman Gomez. We are all aware of the skyrocketing of the union contracts and I don't think we should penalize them."

Mayor Lyons: "The contract goes out through January 31, 1979 in any case. The company still has the right to petition in unforeseen and unusual circumstances."

Bradford Home's Future

The Founders Society has attempted to raise sufficient funds to assure the preservation of the home, hoping to supply the monies needed to bring it up to safety code for public use. The amount of money required has been estimated from $60,000 to $100,000.

Representing the Bradford family at the luncheon was Mrs. Irene Bradford Kamin, a resident of Yorba Linda.

The Founders Society, which has been working for a year on plans to save the home, will next be reporting to the Placentia City Council at its first meeting in January on January 6, 1976. At that time the group may seek an extension of the deadline on razing the home, until the city takes some action on creating a new Cultural Arts Commission. Founders Society members believe the commission, if appointed, would be an appropriate body to make the final decision on the home.

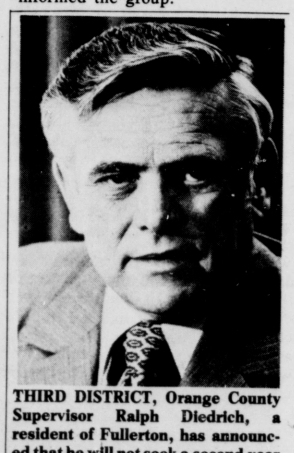
Also involved in the group's work is possibly designating the home for use as a Heritage House and as a backdrop for a changing art gallery. The latter would expectedly require a paid curator and director to work in the home.

Mrs. Kamin, granddaughter of Albert Bradford, said that all of the original furnishings in the home have been sold and are no longer available, although some items and artifacts of interest are on loan to historian George Key and are available if the need for them develops.

Working with the Founders Society and other interested individuals are Mrs. Beverly Lunger, president of the thriving Placentia Art Association, whose board has expressed an interest in saving the home and using it as a cultural center.

Mrs. Kamin told guests at the luncheon that she and other family members are very interested in seeing the home saved, and would hate to see it bulldozed down.

"Both my brother (A.S. "Buddy" Bradford) and I would like to see a museum occur," Mrs. Kamin informed the group.



THIRD DISTRICT, Orange County Supervisor Ralph Diedrich, a resident of Fullerton, has announced that he will not seek a second year as chairman of the five man board. He will, however, seek reelection for a second supervisoral term in June, 1976. It is expected that the chairmanship of the county's top governmental body will go to Supervisor Thomas F. Riley of the fifth district.

Public Urged to Talk On 1988 Plan

A long look at how the city of Placentia will spend $60 million on capital improvements between now and 1988, will be discussed again at the first city council meeting in January.

The review of the 100-page Capital Improvement Element to the General Plan, brought forth no spokesmen from the public. The council desirous of receiving public input voted to continue their perusal of the document to see if more interest would be forthcoming.

The booklet, prepared by staff, outlines all the additional improvements and developments thought to be needed in the city for the next 13 years. The comprehensive document also was the subject of a Page One Placentia Courier story in the December 3, 1975 issue.

Mayor Robert Lyons expressed concern as to when the city would run out of funds unless additional tax sources are found.

Frank Dunnavant, Director of the city's Finance Department replied: "It will be 1983 to '84 before we actually run out of money. At that time the general fund will have a deficit unless new sources of revenue come forth or there is some increase in the area of property tax or other areas that are not now known.

"We never know what inflation is going to do to us from one year to the other in these times, in today's economy. Anyone, I don't care how smart they are, would have to guess and if they hit it on the nose they would be lucky."

Mayor Lyons continued: "We're wiped out of contingency fund about 1979." Dunnavant: "You continue to reduce your contingency fund until 1982-'83 and then you would only have a contingency of $225.

Lyons: "I think we had better start considering using the utility tax fund to fill up the holes in the general fund... either that, or property taxes are going to go up. That's how I feel if we reduce any of the percentages on the utility tax because I know we're going to need it to maintain the present level of service."

Lyons, concerning public participation: "We're not going to send out special invitations because people have letters in the newspapers, but I would like to see us continue this thing because I think we're talking about approximately $60 million in city funds and I think somebody might be interested enough to show up for a public hearing. And I wish the press would pick it up," the Mayor concluded.

Letters To The Editor

Against Open Space Purchase

To the Editor:

I recently read an article concerning the formation of a citizens group from four countries being formed to apply pressure on the State Legislators to purchase the Chino Hills for "Open Space". While I can appreciate their concern about the proposed airport, have they seriously considered all of the ramifications of what they propose?

If the thousands of us living in the cities surrounding the Chino Hills wanted to partake of the "Open Space", (according to the Environmental Impact Reports for proposed development in this area) our presence there would create a tremendous fire hazard, our cars would pollute the air and we would cause traffic jams on the roads presently "operating at over capacity"; and the residents in the hills have made it clear that they are opposed to widening or improving the present roads, or to the construction of any additional roads into the area. Apparently we are not welcome to drive through and partake of this "Open Space".

If you check the tax records and talk to your local School Superintendent, you will find that those of us living in the cities are subsidizing the rural environment enjoyed by the residents in these hills. Now we are being asked to preserve this environment, apparently for their benefit only since our presence is obviously unwelcome, at additional cost to us. Not only should we consider the cost of purchasing the 50,000 acres involved, but the loss of tax revenue now being paid by the private property owners in Chino Hills must be absorbed as well; the major portion of which will fall on the city residents.

In addition, with these 50,000 acres added to the hundreds of thousands of acres already under State and Federal control in Southern California, what will happen to the price of land designated for development? Will the value of this land skyrocket to the point that industry, the backbone of a city's or county's tax base, will be forced away from the area?

We hear the statistics on the "anticipated growth" for the area surrounding the Chino Hills, but how many of us stop to think that much of this "anticipated growth" represents the younger generation, our sons and daughters who are going to grow up, marry and want a home of their own? Are our children to be relegated to apartments and condominiums because the price of land is such that they no longer can afford this privilege that is so much a part of the American way of life? Are we being asked to preserve these hills for the sake of the "natural habitat" so the ground squirrels, the rabbits, the rattlesnakes, they tarantulas, the packs of coyotes and wild dogs are free to roam as they please, and "fence" our future generation in apartments or condominiums; depriving our children of the opportunity to have their own small piece of ground - a privilege we cherish so highly?

To the members of PATCH, to Mr. Rhoads, to Mayor Ewing and to the proposed citizen's committee, I say, "isn't there a better way?" To the thousands of you living in the cities surrounding the Chino Hill, ask yourselves this question: "Open Space? For Whom? And then ask it of your City Councils, your Board of Supervisors, your State Representatives who will be pressured for this move and your Governor who has the power to veto any such legislative action.

Open space has been presented to us in a pretty package. It is time now we take the wrapping off and have a good look at what is inside; and the price we and future generations will have to pay for it.

Carolers Spread Christmas Joy

The Yorba Linda Carolers is a newly formed group of college and high school students who are offering Christmas music programs to area convalescent home and sanitarium residents.

The group was organized by Lynda Thomas of Yorba Linda, a music major at Fullerton College. She is also the director.

The dedicated young people are donating their time and talents to bring the spirit of Christmas to those who might otherwise be neglected at this time of the year.

Members of the group, in addition to Lynda Thomas, include: Donna Ekins, Mark Campbell, Paula Campbell, Tim McReynolds, Luanne Black, Dave Robeck, Karen Sheets, Bridgett Smith, Tod Frank, Tom Brown, Don French and Ellen Terry, all of Esperanza High and Marck McKay of Cal State Fullerton.

Among the places they will be singing was Sunny Hills Convalescent Hospital, Fullerton and Farmdale Convalescent Hospital, Buena Park on December 23.

Tonight, Christmas Eve, they will perform at Sunhaven CH, Fullerton; Hillhaven CH, Anaheim and Gordon Lane CH, Fullerton.

Several Yorba Linda merchants donated Christmas items the singers gave as gifts to members of their audiences. Those merchants were: Vons, T.G. & and Judy Lynn Bakery.

In and Around Yorba Linda

by Judy Goffin

Christmas is just around the corner and everyone I know is very excited..... trying to find time to get their trees out of the garage after purchase last week and finally getting them decorated and ready for the big day. I have seen many Santa's around and all are handling the action very well.

I heard that Christmas in the Park, sponsored by the Chamber, was as nice as always. It is nice to have traditional activities in our town.

Everyone will miss Tom Hogan from Pomona Savings and Loan. He has been as asset in our community, serving on many boards and activities, including the Chamber and Rotary. I am sure the folks in Hemet will be happy to welcome him and his family.

Another family relocating in Chino are Jim and Bea Annesser along with their two daughters. I guess they wanted some wide open spaces and that is the place to go.

Linda Vista School has certainly been the recepient of many lovely gifts lately. It was great that the Yorba Linda Jrs. were able to raise so much money for their landscaping projects.

The recent Music Art Society Fund Raising affair was a grand success. More than 150 Yorba Lindans and guests enjoyed cocktails, at various members home, and then journeyed to downtown Orange where more food, drink and a great band, helped to make the Holiday Preview a great evening. Seen dancing were many Yorba Linda Junior Club members, including the Eaves, Van Buskirks, Waterburys, and former member, Pat Reithmeier, along with husband Bill.

Yorba Linda School District

Board Member's Report

by Shirley Guardia

I am your newest School Board member, having been appointed to fill Kathy Baker's position three months ago. Although I am the only woman on the Board, I am surrounded by highly interested, intelligent men who not only excel in their demanding careers as executives and fathers, but allow their love for children to include serving all the children of Yorba Linda as School Trustees.

I wanted to serve on the Board because I too love children, but more than that wanted to do more than I had as a way of showing my appreciation for the wonderful people who have worked for better schooling for the eleven years we have lived in Yorba Linda.

Outstanding teachers who went beyond what was required to teach our children and a Board who worked hours each week for no pay made me feel thankful enough to want to share the work load.

Now that I've gotten my feet wet, (I've been told it takes about two years to really know the job) I thought I would make an attempt to let you see our schools through the eyes of a Board member.

The thing that's foremost on my mind today is the lack of good communication between School Board members, teachers, parents, students and the rest of the community.

Other school districts have communication people on their staffs to handle this problem. Our district is smaller and can be more personal. No money is available for such use, so as responsible citizens, we must seek out answers ourselves by attending P.T.A. functions, belonging to citizens advisory committees, visiting School Board meetings, calling the principal or Superintendent with specific questions and suspending judgment on any information that has come to us that is upsetting and has not been checked out with one of these sources.

As we see other school districts falling apart at the seams as misunderstandings and selfishness runs rampant, let our small district stand together, strong and determined to back our schools so that our children will look back to the foundation in learning and citizenship they received from the Yorba Linda Schools as their start towards a fruitful life.

SANTA Never Forgets

A PRE-CHRISTMAS PRESENT in the hospital is especially appreciated, Ronald Hein, 8, discovers as Santa [Ken Owens] and other El Dorado and Esperanza students, who are active in the Placentia-Linda Community Hospital Medical Occupations Program, pay a visit. In back is Melanie Stambaugh. Esperanza home economic students made gift hand puppets for the youngsters in the hospital's Pediatrics Ward.

YOUR OWN BED is a good place to be on Christmas Eve, but when you can't be there, like when you're at the hospital, it's very reassuring for Santa to drop by ahead of time and tell you not to worry. In the picture above, David Kirk, age 3, is reassured.

MRS. ANGELINE BACKS--makes still another present to the citizens of Placentia and to Kraemer Park...badly needed picnic tables and benches. She is seated here on one of the ten she has donated. With her are the city's purchasing agent, Jim Park and on the right, director of the city's recreation and maintenance services, Dick Samp. Mrs. Backs and her late husband, Edward Backs, have made a profusion of gifts to the city including the building site where the new City Hall-Library complex now stands, Kraemer Park, the Veterans Memorial Fountain, a site for a city construction yard and a host of others.

EMPOYEE OF THE YEAR, chosen by fellow employees of the city of Placentia, is Lois Hunter, who works in the city's police department. Named Boss of the Year was Frank Dunnavant, Director of Finance. The awards were made at the ninth annual employees luncheon held Friday at the Senior Citizens Building. Santa Claus also made an appearance and distributed gifts among the group.

Childhood Classes Open

Classes in child development are offered for parents in the Placentia Unified School District from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesdays, beginning January 7 at Glenview Elementary School, 1775 Glenview Ave., Anaheim.

The nine-session course, which runs through March 3, is free and given cooperatively by Glenview's Early Childhood Education program and the North Orange County Community College District's Adult Education Division.

Raymond Steele, a professional counselor in private practice, will teach the course, which is designed to help parents understand children's stages of growth, how parents affect development and how to determine reasonable expectations from children.

The classes are part of a series of continuing parent education programs sponsored by Glenview ECE.

Dr. Robert Carpenter, a La Habra physician who authored the book "Dear Doctor", will speak on learning disabilities at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 20.

A second series of classes on increasing parent skills, or "parenting," will be offered March 10-May 5, according to Ellen Blaufarb, a resource specialist coordinating the parent education program at Glenview.

Although the classes have been set up to serve the needs and requests of Glenview parents, they are open to anyone in the community. Class reservations should be made by calling the school at 524-7353.

DR. AT SEMINAR

Dr. Allan R. Strak, 1920 E. Katella, Orange, a resident of Placentia, participated in the Pennsylvania College of Podiatric Medicine's second annual Surgical Seminar held recently in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Thirty-six doctors, including doctors of Medicine, Osteopathy and Podiatric Medicine, discussed modern and traditional surgical procedures for complete health care of the foot.

Club Celebrates Christmas

The Kountry Kultivators, 4-H Club, is having a busy month, the group reports.

On December 11, members held their Christmas Party at the Yorba Linda Library. Individuals brought canned goods and toys for the needy, to be distributed at Christmas time.

Each member brought a home made Christmas tree ornament which was judged on originality. The winner was Julia Wang. There also was a gift exchange.

The Kultivators went Christmas caroling before their meeting. Santa arrived and helped pass out the gifts. Refreshments were served.

Members of the sewing group have been occupied preparing for the T G & Y clothing contest. The groups are led by Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Higgins. Members picked their pattern and material, which was furnished by T G & Y. They were judged on construction and appeal of the garment.

Seamstresses entering the competition included Terri Allen, Debbie Brewer, Juli Pevan, Shelly Ware, Alison Osborn, Joanna Higgins, Cathy Alford, Anita Salas, Carolyn Kitchens and Andrea Mastrejaun.

Winners were Joanna Higgins, first; Alison Osborn, second; Andrea Mastrejaun, third and Julie Pevan, fourth.

The rabbit project also was hopping. Members entered a rabbit show held at the Pomona Fairgrounds. Members who entered the competition were Anne Keith, Shelly and Sherry Ware and Kris Lewotsky.

Birthday Gift Stuns Vorona

Nick Vorona can probably remember something special about a lot of his birthdays but he will probably recall his 52nd more than any other.

The Vorona's combined Nick's birthday celebration with a housewarming party for their new home at 6162 Bridal Lane in Yorba Linda's Parkside Estates.

Among the birthday gifts waiting to be opened was one unusually large package which Nick, on order's from his wife, was to open first.

With about 65 guests looking on Nick opened the box. Out popped a scantily clad, full figured young lady who bestowed a warm hug and an emphatic kiss on the startled birthday boy.

Mrs. Vorona had arranged the surprise and obtained the young lady from an area club where she performs evenings as a stripper.

If, by some chance, Nick should not remember this particular birthday his co-workers at the engraving shop in Buena Park and his fellow CIF officials and other friends who were at the party will gladly refresh his memory.

Vietnamese Need Jobs

Two young Vietnamese, being sponsored by Placentia's Redeemer Lutheran Church, are looking for permanent jobs, the church advised this week.

The young men, Huynh Viet Quoc, former air force pilot and navigator in Viet Nam and Le Trieu That, who was a mechanic and welder in the Vietnamese army, are also planning to return to school to improve their English and brush up on their skills.

The men have held temporary jobs at Knotts Berry Farm.

The young men also need furniture for their apartment, the church says. Particularly needed are living room tables, lamps and kitchen equipment.

They are also in need of items of winter clothing in small sizes. They also have transportation problems.

In job experience, Trieu has had some welding experience and Viet has done repair work on Japanese cars.

The young men have gone bowling and seen a football game (where they cheered for the wrong team). A trip to the snow is also planned for them, hosted by church members.

Standing Vehicle Policy Stays

A review of the city of Placentia's policy to remove vehicles left standing on the street for more than 72 consecutive hours, was received and filed Tuesday night by the Placentia City Council.

The vote will continue the present policy, including the police procedure of marking the vehicle's tire to verify non-movement; attempting to contact the owner and placing a warning notice under the windshield wiper.

If the vehicle has not been moved after 72 hours, it will be stored without further notice. Registered letters are sent to registered and legal owners of the vehicle, when the vehicle is stored, the memorandum states.

YOUR Pharmacist SPEAKS

By John Payne, Owner - Reg. Pharmacist

Strange how in the days when there were so very few doctors, house calls were the order of the day. Now that there are hundreds of medicos being graduated every year...the old house call is becoming passe. The reason for all this, of course, lies in the population boom, which puts pressure on the doctor to make every moment count.

Specialization makes possible the fast, accurate diagnosis in the office... specialists who can be called in to consult on any complications. It all constitutes medical streamlining in order to care for more people in the best possible manner.

For fast, efficient service and relaible prescription filling, you can depend on the prescription specialists: LINDA VISTA PHARMACY! Remember, your major credit card will be honored here.

Medallions--At 20 Paces

A challenge was thrown out this week between the Hatfields (the Ponces) and the McCoys (the Rodriguezes).

The weapons will be Placentia Bicentennial Medallions.

Starting off the friendly non-combative feud is duly elected City Clerk, Edmund Ponce, who purchased 25 of the special bronze medals and then threw out a challenge to a cousin of his, Mrs. Gloria Lopez, who is a member of the Rodriguez family.

The Rodriguez descendants and relatives who number more than 300 just in the city of Placentia, Ponce says, should buy even more of the commemorative, specially struck medallions, which celebrate the country's 200th birthday and Placentia's 50th anniversary.

Mrs. Lopez said she will urge all her relations to buy the medallions for Christmas presents and that she will buy several for special gifts.

Ponce and Mrs. Lopez are related through their grandmothers, Herlinda Gastelum Martinez and Rosa Gastelum Rodriguez, who were sisters.

The cousins are both native Placentians and can trace their ancestory back to early days of California settlement.

Rodriguez descendants, which number over 600 in this general area, have instituted annual reunions each year to keep up with family news and growth.

Ponce, who bought the 25 medallions to give to members of his immediate family who have been born or raised in Placentia, also has a recorded family tree.

Ponce's father, Emilio Ponce, came to California from Texas in 1902 and the family, three brothers and two sisters eventually lived a few blocks from Olvera Street.

Emilio Ponce is the city of Placentia's first retired employee.

Ponce's grandmother was born in Baja California, Mexico in 1865 and migrated with her family to the Anaheim area in the 1890s. Carolina's father Rodolfo Martinez was born in Santa Barbara in 1861. Rodolfo's parents, Lazaro Martinez and Gregoria Carvahales were born in Santa Barbara in the 1830s.

The bronze medallions, which cost $3 each, may be purchased at Placentia City Hall, the Chamber of Commerce or from several of the city's service clubs.

FRIENDLY FEUD--Edmund Ponce, Placentia's City Clerk, challenges his second cousin, Gloria Lopez to a medallion duel, to see who can sell more of the bronze Bicentennial tokens depicting the commemoration of the country's 200th birthday and the city's 50th year. The medals are now on sale throughout the city.

Jr. High Concert Tour

The Yorba Linda Junior High band and chorus, under the direction of Robert Shury and Richard Allen, shared yuletide spirit in music with students at each of the elementary schools during a recent concert tour.

Traditional, religious and popular holiday selections brought the elementary audiences into the holiday feeling.

The vocal and instrumental music programs in the Yorba Linda School District are begun at an early age. Elementary students are given vocal instruction at the classroom level.

This instruction frequently culminates in performances for their school and parents. At the Junior High, vocal students become part of Allen's choruses and choirs.

Instrumental music is taught at the four elementary schools by Shury. If an elementary student shows a desire to play a musical instrument, Shury helps the student select an instrument and give personalized instruction.

When instrumental students enter the Junior High, they become part of Shury's band.

The Junior High vocal and instrumental groups perform regularly at each of the Yorba Linda School District's four elementary schools.

HOLIDAY TREAT--The All American Boys Chorus, under the direction of Father Coughlin, front right, entertained at McDonald's Restaurant in Lakeview Center, Yorba Linda on the night of December 20. Along with their well known medley of easily recognized songs the group offered the traditional songs of Christmas. McDonald's hosted a Christmas party for the boys following the performance.

KATIE'S COLUMN or DOWN ON THE FARM by Kay Starr

Somehow in all these years of growing and selling Christmas trees, it has never occurred to me that someone buying one of these long-needle bushy trees would be at a loss to know how to decorate a Monterey pine.

This year several buyers have asked just how to do it. Thinking back to the first time I was confronted with the task of decorating one, it was a challenge.

Well, I can tell you where you can get plenty of ideas for your next tree. The women of the Mother Goose Guild are experts. Each year they plan and make decorations for a dozen different trees which they have on display at a Christmas Brunch. The trees are awarded to the guests.

This year my little one and I went over early in the morning to see what fantastic decorations the women had prepared this year. My daughter was most impressed with the "Winter Fantasy" - quilled paper snowflakes, crocheted poinsettias and crystal prisms on it.

I went for the more whimsical "Not even a", with (mice) in various poses, swinging in a hammock, popping out of a box, and so on. Just delightful. One tree was done in a bicentennial theme. Angels, cornhusk dolls, "God's eyes", so many beautiful ornaments, all handmade.

To be a winner of any one of those trees has to be the ultimate prize. Our tree is a little drab in comparison (beautiful to me) because all it sports right now are the lights. We are waiting for our traveler to return to help decorate our tree.

It would be quite a thing to follow the example of the Industrial Forestry Association and have a contest for the tree that grows the most during the year. Believe it or not, this year the winner of this contest among thousands of Douglas Fir trees is "Topsy" growing in Washington.

"Topsy" is 16 feet tall and 8 years old. A Monterey Pine that age could be over 30 feet tall. I know a number of growers who are always bragging about how fast their trees grow, and this would surely determine if their bragging is for real.

As if we need another organization, but a new one that's getting started is called "California Women for Agriculture". This group hopes to do most of its work without time consuming meetings.

They have planned a seminar to be held in Palm Springs on Jan. 14th and 15th at the Spa Hotel. This seminar is to acquaint the women (and men, too) with the issues that need attention.

Sister Thomas Moore of Silver Lake College, Wisconsin will speak to the group about cooperation. I had the pleasure of meeting Sister Thomas last summer.

She is vitally interested in what's happening to agriculture. Anyone wishing to attend the seminar may contact me at 528-4200.

"T'was the night before Christmas, and all through the house," I was scurrying and hurrying to get everything together. Next year....Have a happy and a merry Christmas.

HOLIDAY PARTY

El Camino Real students hosted a Christmas party for special education children from Golden Elementary School recently. Refreshments made by students were served, according to teachers Karen Davis and Alta Hagen. Following the party, El Camino students enjoyed the music of Abyss, which includes George Isais of El Camino and Allen Elliott and Dave Hartman of Esperanza High School.

CHRISTMAS CHEER--for a needy family is displayed here by this year's cochairmen of the 1975 Placentia Christmas Clearing Bureau. The project, an annual effort, this year made Christmas much merrier for 250 families in the area, who might otherwise have had little reason for rejoicing. Two boxes, containing food and gifts were provided for each of the families. The hard working cochairmen are Jeanne Christensen and Irene Czaplinski, members of the Placentia Round Table, who sponsor the city-wide project.

Rev. Webbeking Honored

The Rev. Albert G. Webbeking, Placentia, has been awarded the degree: Doctor of Divinity honoris causa, by Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Illinois, "in recognition of his long and faithful services to the Church, both as a Pastor and Synodical leader, particularly for his mission efforts in behalf of the Southern California District of the Church."

Dr. Webbeking served as Mission and Stewardship Executive of the Southern California District of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod from 1954-1962.

In granting the degree to the Rev. Webbeking, Dr. Robert Preus, President of the Springfield Seminary, stated that his alma mater was recognizing his tireless mission efforts which resulted in the fathering of almost all of the missions of the District in recent years. Participating in the ceremonies conducted in the home of the honoree, besides Dr. Preus, was the Rev. Dr. Arnold G. Kuntz, President of the District; the Rev. Harold Tietjen, present Mission Executive of the District, and the Rev. Gustav Schramm, District Vice President. Members of the immediate family and administrative associates were also in attendance.

The Rev. Dr. Webbeking graduated from Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Illinois, in 1913. Following his ordination he served parishes in Waltham, Minnesota; Westgate, Iowa; and Immanuel, Orange, California. He served the Southern California District in various capacities until he was called as the first full-time Executive Secretary of the District in 1945, a position he held until his retirement in 1962.

On July 17, 1921, he was married to Augusta (nee Fahrencamp). They have five children-Albert of Orange, California; Helen a teacher in the Montebello School District; Robert of Moronga Valley, California; and Evelyn McReynolds of Rowland Heights, California.

During his retirement, Dr. Webbeking, still maintains an active interest in the work of his church, as well as pursuing his avocation of wood-working and cabinet making.

SANCTUARY CHOIR--of Rose Drive Friends Church, under the direction of Rosemary Metheny, will participate in the Christmas Eve Candlelight Service tonight [Wednesday] at both 8:30 and 10 p.m. The church is located at Bastanchury and Rose Drive in Yorba Linda.

Evening With Atwood

RUDY ATWOOD

The well-known gospel pianist Rudy Atwood will present an evening of music and evangelism Sunday evening at Faith Baptist Church of Yorba Linda at the 6 p.m. service.

Rudy Atwood is loved by everyone who knows his music. For over 30 years he served in the ministry of music on the Old Fashioned Revival Hour radio program. His work as featured soloist and accompanist for the OFRH Quartet, Choir, and other artists, has earned for him the title, "The most imitated pianist in gospel music."

Rudy Atwood is an ordained minister of the gospel. His musical talent has always belonged to God, and he firmly believes in the ministry of music as a vital part of the worship of the church.

Now, for the first time, Atwood is entering the field of full time evangelism with his music, which he does not consider to be a form of entertainment, but rather a means of proclaiming the gospel.

"The man who changed the sound of gospel music," may be enjoyed in An Evening With Rudy Atwood, the pure nostalgia of which reaffirms a faith anchored to The Rock, Christ Jesus.

Candlelight Service

"It's beautiful!"

"It has a calming effect after all the rush. It sets the right tone before Christmas day."

"It has become a family tradition at our house."

"It brings out the real meaning of Christmas."

These are a few of the responses to the question, "Why do you enjoy the Christmas Eve Candlelight Service at Rose Drive Friends Church?"

Again this year the church will combine a delightful blend of choir music, inspirational words, solos and candlelight to set the mood for Christmas.

For the last two years crowds have packed out the single service on Christmas Eve. So tonight, December 24, the church will provide duplicate Candlelight services, one at 8:30 p.m. and the other at 10 p.m.

Rose Drive Friends Church is located at 4221 Rose Drive in Yorba Linda, at the corner of Bastanchury Rd. and Rose Drive.

Although he preaches no sermon, a special feature of the service is the singing of pastor C.W. Perry, interspersed with words of Christmas inspiration. Rosemary Metheny directs the 50-voice choir, which will sing several selections. Soloists and small musical groups top off the program.

The community is invited to share in either the 8:30 or 10 p.m. service. The Candlelight Eve Service provides a delightful time for worship and praise of God and His Christmas Gift to us.

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant!

New Classes To Begin

Three new elective classes for adults and a new class for families with young children have been scheduled by United Methodist Church of Yorba Linda.

The Council on Ministries has approved the report of a special task group recommending two classes to begin on January 11 and running for 13 weeks.

The popular Bauman Bible Study films will be shown twice on Sunday during the 9:30 a.m. Church School hour and again at 7 p.m. in a special evening class.

The theme will be: "The Old Testament Speaks to Modern Man." There will be a charge of $5 for the series to defray the cost of renting the film. An additional $2 will be assessed for a workbook.

Issues Confronting the 21st Century Person" will be the general topic of another elective class to be offered during the 9:30 hour. It will run for four weeks.

Tim Gosney will lead the discussion on Consumer Rights. Other topics in the series will include: World Hunger, Nuclear Power; Pros and Cons, Affluency and Public Relations.

Church Year Old

Calvary Baptist Church at 18821 Yorba Linda Blvd., Yorba Linda, observed its first anniversary on November 23 with an overflow crowd attending the ceremonies marking the event.

Plans for a new two story Sunday School addition are expected to be ready in early January, according to the church's founder and pastor, Dr. R.W Cunningham.

Trustees who will serve the church in 1976 are Walt McGhee, C.A. Berkebile, James Reese, Jan Dickens, J.W. Armantrout, Gerald Evans, Carl Cokely and Gary Jeffries.

Lutherans Set Christmas Eve Service

Christmas Eve Candlelight Worship services will be held at 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. at the Redeemer Lutheran Church, 451 West Madison Avenue, Placentia.

Included will be scripture readings by members of the congregation and music by the Junior and Senior Choirs. Special numbers will feature a Youth Choir trio and piano-organ duet by Scott May and Vivian Walz.

A sermonette, carols and the traditional candlelight ceremony will be a part of the special service, the church reports.

NATIVITY SCENE-IN MINIATURE-Preschoolers from St. Steven's Lutheran Church preschool tried the nativity roles at the school's annual Christmas program. Here a young Joseph learns from an angel that Mary will bear the Son of God. Playing Joseph is Mark Peterkin, while the little angel is Karen Wiseman.

Services Held For Mrs. Mikoloski

A funeral mass was held Monday for Mrs. Gerry Mikoloski, age 40 of 449 West Madison Avenue, Placentia, who passed away at Placentia-Linda Community Hospital.

The Mass was said at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Placentia, following a Rosary Service Sunday night at Neels Brea Morturay. Interment was in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

Mrs. Mikoloski was born in McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania and worked as a registered nurse at St. Jude Hospital, Fullerton before her death.

She is survived by her husband James of the home address and her mother, Mrs. Ann Kozak of Pennsylvania; daughter Anna Marie and Theresa Lennor both of the home address and brothers Larry, Mark and Mike all of Pennsylvania.

First Baptist Church Plans Services

The following events are happening at The Church in the Marketplace located in the Sierra Vista Shopping Center, Pastor David Brostrom reports.

A Christmas Eve Worship hour will be held from 11 p.m. until midnight. Also a holy hush and candlelight. Please bring a candle from your home to light God's house as a token of our togetherness in celebrating the coming of the light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

Church To Show Film

"Time To Run," a film that is a mixture of problems and solutions, will be shown at Rose Drive Baptist Church, Yorba Linda Sunday, Dec. 28th. The feature, filmed in Eastmancolor by World Wide Pictures, will be shown at 7 p.m.

Filmed on location in the Southern California area, "Time To Run" stars Ed Nelson, Randall Carver, Barbara Sigel, Joan Winmill and Gordon Rigsby.

The film allows the viewer to become involved on any one or more of the three different levels. Viewed purely as entertainment, it's the suspenseful story of Jeff's attempts at sabotage in the nuclear generating plant conceived, designed and managed by his father.

Viewed on an emotional level, "Time To Run" is the deeply moving drama of the conflicts that are tearing a family apart-conflicts that develop between husband and wife, and between father and son.

Approached from a religious perspective, the picture is also a story of friction between Jeff and his girlfriend, Michelle, played by Barbara Sigel.

Michelle has discovered a spiritual dimension in her life, and this aspect is very confusing to Jeff, who has little time for "a God who would allow war, hatred, and suffering on earth."

But his life is shattered by an avalanche of personal problems, and he finds himself at a Jesus people gathering with Michelle, where he glimpses the possibility of a new life-style based on love and understanding.

"Time To Run" is a film that can help strengthen love relationships between people. It's a film that was made for families to attend--together.

New Police Group Forms In County

The formation of a new member-oriented law enforcement organization, Police Association, County of Orange, Inc., was announced today by Leon E. Wilber, President.

The non-profit body will operate under a volunteer board of directors which establishes all operating policies.

In 1976, PACO plans to expand its program to include greater interaction with business, industry and community groups.

It will also seek the involvement of youth throughout the county, promoting better understanding of the law enforcement role in our society.

Three membership categories have been defined by the organization.

Regular Members include any law enforcement professional defined as peace officers in the California Penal Code-Section 830-832, who live or work in Orange County.

Youth Members primarily include cadet and explorer groups of various police agencies within the county.

Associate Membership is broadly defined as those individuals from non-professional law enforcement backgrounds who wish to become involved in and support programs of PACO.

Annual Membership fees for regular member is $24, youth members, $10 and associate member, $12.

Additional information can be secured from PACO administrative offices by calling (714) 542-4144.

Exchange Student Need Host Homes

High school students, ages 15-18, will be arriving in Southern California from South American in late January.

These students are part of a world-wide exchange program known as Pacific Intercultural Exchange, (PIE). PIE is a non-profit corporation operating the student exchange program under State Department guidelines.

The program places students in average American homes, providing for them the opportunity to attend our high schools, to attain greater proficiency in the English language and to acquire a better understanding of our country and customs.

Host families are needed for these students who will be living and studying in the United States for one semester.

Size, wealth or age of host family members are not the most important ingredients. Exchange students have been happily placed with families with small children, no children, even one-parent families.

PIE is also accepting applications from American teenagers for the Study Abroad Programs. Students, ages 15-18, may choose from a variety of programs including: Summer homestays and six-month or one-year homestay/study programs in Europe, South America or Japan. Students will live with families and attend school in the host country.

Interested host families and students may obtain information and applications by telephoning or writing to: Tom and Nancy Garcia, 7692 Lessue, Stanton, Ca. 90680, (714) 894-1029.

Valuation Of Permits Increases

The same number of total building permits, 138, were issued in Yorba Linda during November as the previous month but the permit valuation increased by $363,761.

This was apparently due to the value of the 61 permits for single family homes issued in November as compared to 41 in October. The total for November was almost $3,800,000 against slightly under $3.5 million in October.

This year to date valuations show a hefty increase of over $4 million more than last year to date. So far in 1975 permit valuations amount to $13, valuations amount to $13,664,344. At this time last year the figure was $9,640,761.

Cookie Convention Succulent Success:

About 25-30 preschoolers convened at 10:30 a.m. December 13th for the second annual Cookie Convention to exercise their creative talents.

Amid sprinkles, Spreckles, Santas and stars, the delegates promptly divided into small working groups to debate the pros and cons of modish green and lavender Santas versus the more traditional red and white.

The convention adjourned approximately one hour later after the conferees had cleaned up all but a few details.

Happy Holidays to All.

EL TORO OUT

Joint use of the Marine Corps Air Station at El Toro by civilian air carriers and military aircraft was "respectfully declined," in a letter from assistant secretary of the navy, Jack L. Bowers, to Ralph A. Diedrich, chairman of the Orange County Board of Supervisors, chairman Diedrich reported this week.

ATTRACTIVE BRADFORD HOUSE PRINTS, by Placentia artist Lynn Van Dam, were eagerly purchased Tuesday at a luncheon hosted by the Placentia Founders Society, a group dedicated to preserving the Bradford House, already owned by the city of Placentia. Among those interested in the project are Bill Tynes and Carrie Van Amburgh, representing college and high school students; Sylvia Hoskins, president of the Founders Society, Beverly Lunger, president of the Placentia Art Association and, purchasing a print, Dick Samp, Director of the city's Recreation and Maintenance Services Department. The house is located on Palm Drive, between Kraemer Boulevard and Bradford Avenue, in the city of Placentia.

Tigerette Team Honored

The Tigerette Drill Team from Valencia High School walked off with a second place in Drill Team Competition at the fourth annual California Band Review held in Santa Ana recently. It was a great day for the girls in spite of drenching rains and a 45 minute delay for the start of the parade.

The Valencia High School Band led the way for the Band Review and later that night took second place in the Lynwood Candy Cane Parade. Under the leadership of Drum Major Jim Short, the band looked very sharp and it was a good way to end a busy day of marching, the group reports.

The Valencia High School Band and Drill Team marched in Covina on December 6th and in the South Gate Christmas Parade on December 14th. The South Gate Parade will be televised and shown on Saturday, December 20th, on Channel 13 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

A Christmas program featuring the Valencia Band and Choir is scheduled for December 18th at the Valencia High School Auditorum.

Wagner On Water Board

Preston K. Allen was elected president of the Orange County Water District Board of Directors by the ten-member Board at the regular meeting. Merwin Wagner of Placentia is a member of the board.

The Orange County Water District is responsible for the management of the county's groundwater supply from which 60 per cent of the total water demand is obtained. The District operates groundwater recharge facilities within and adjacent to the Santa Ana River in the Anaheim area where natural flows of the Santa Ana River and imported water is percolated (or soaked) into the underground reservoir.

Water Factory 21 in Fountain Valley, another project of Orange County Water District is a combination seawater distillation module-advanced wastewater reclamation plant producing water for groundwater injection as a deterrent to seawater intrusion.

Water Men At Meeting

Top officials of the Yorba Linda County Water District attended the 32nd annual meeting of the Colorado River Water Users Association in Las Vegas December 11-12.

Board president Fred Clodt, vice president Roy Knauft, director Howard Lindow and general manager Ralph Shook attended sessions on such subjects as salinity control, budget problems and economic problems facing the Colorado River project.

Prominent speakers during the two-day session included Sen. Paul Fannin, R-Ariz.; Under Secretary of the Interior Kent Frizzell, Arizona Gov. Raul Castro, and James H. Drake, vice president of the Southern California Edison Company.

Alpha Center Moves

Alpha Center, a family and youth service agency, has recently moved into old Placentia police and city hall facilities at 120 South Bradford. The Center had operated out of the northeast wing of the Calvary Church facility for its first 2½ years of operation.

The move was made possible through the Placentia City Council's decision to lease the facilities to Calvary Church of Placentia for Alpha Center's use on June 17, 1975.

Fred Reyes, the Center's director, indicated that the new facilities are satisfactorily accommodating the expansion of services and staff, which has recently occurred with additional Orange County Revenue Sharing funding.

The Alpha Center is continuing in its development and provision of family and youth services. Its primary area is northeast Orange County. Presently, it is providing a variety of counseling services, a peer counseling program on the Valencia High School campus, a 24-hour helpline, a variety of alternative youth activities, drug abuse services, a youth employment program, and other supplemental social services. Reyes stated that the Center is satisfactorily continuing its growth and evolution.

Gifted Course At Valencia

BY BARBARA WARREN

Gifted on Learning Discoveries (GOLD) is a new alternative learning program for mentally gifted minors (MGM) at Valencia High School this year with Jock Fisher as the coordinator of the program.

GOLD allows MGM students to take classes on contract with the same teachers and textbooks as other students but working on their own at a more rapid rate so they can take special classes or go on to another course.

Rather than doing more work or being given additional assignments because they are gifted, members of GOLD are given opportunities to employ more sophisticated methods of learning such as college texts and independent research, according to Fisher.

Tests are given at the third and fourth grade levels and the test scores are then by state law used to determine the mentally gifted. In high school they are then certified MGM's and are offered the GOLD program as upper division students. Out of 15 identified MGM juniors, 11 are presently enrolled in GOLD of their own free will at Valencia, according to Fisher.

Scheduling for the GOLD students is done by hand since the computer is only geared for six classes and GOLD offers the student the opportunity to take eight or nine classes.

A GOLD resource room is available on campus where the students can go to work on assignments and projects when not scheduled into a regular class. This facility enables them to keep their projects going, view films, and use research materials available for GOLD students.

According to Fisher, GOLD's objectives are "to turn out a student who can work on his own and pursue research without someone beating on his back."

The school receives state funds for every student enrolled in MGM and GOLD. This extra money goes towards the purchase of college texts, films and other audio visual and research materials.

In the past Valencia has had 9th and 10th grade language arts and history seminars for MGM students but nothing special for gifted juniors. GOLD, still in the planning stages, is an 11th and 12th grade program set up in conjunction with the Regional Occupation Program's career exploration. This combination would offer the upperclassman a chance to be learning "on the job," but, as Fisher explains, this joint program is still a while away.

Explorers Aid Check Program

Placentia Exporer Post 910 was involved in distributing handout material to Placentia city merchants during the month of November.

This material advised merchants to ask for identification from unfamiliar customers before cashing their checks. If they should become a victim of a bad check passer, they should notify the police department immediately.

Detective Couch provided the handout material and made the arrangements for the Explorers to distribute the information.

Bands Win Prizes

Bands and drill teams from junior and senior high schools in the Placentia Unified School District came home winners from several holiday parades last weekend.

Tuffree Junior High, which fielded a band and drill team for the first time this year, brought home a first place trophy for the 52-member drill team from La Habra's Christmas Parade. Coaches are Emily Chumchal and Liz Greenhill. Drum majorette Lisa Bjork also earned a second place.

Valencia High School's drill team also marched to a first place victory against 15 competitors in the South Gate Christmas Parade Saturday night. Sheila Wilson is the coach.

The Esperanza High School band earned second and the drill team third at Saturday's Christmas Parade at Camarillo. Mike Johnson is band director, and Nikki Johnson coaches the drill team.

CONCERT

Esperanza's band and drill team gave a performance for Van Buren Elementary School students at their school recently.

TAXES DOUBLE

In six years the total taxes paid by Californians for state and local government have doubled, Kirk West, executive vice president of the California Taxpayers' Association said today. In 1968-69 the total taxes for California state and local government, including the payroll taxes which fund disability and unemployment insurance, was $11.6 billion. In 1974-75 this had climbed to $22.3 billion, he stated.

CHAMPAGNE PARTY--was hosted by Leonard Rodgers, vice president/manager of the Century Federal Savings and Loan Company in the bank's building in Placentia's Town Center. The occasion was the annual Christmas Open House of the Placentia Chamber of Commerce. With Rodgers [center] are Mrs. Harold Meadowcroft, Fullerton and William Beggerly, Placentia.

TROPHY PRESENTATION-Ken Dressel and Jim Haynie accept the second place trophy after Friday night's CIF championship game. It was a hard, heartbreaking night for the Hawks who wanted so badly to win it all, but their game never got going. It was the climax of the Hawks most successful season ever, but losing is never easy.

SHORT GAINER-Jim Haynie finds trouble at the line of scrimmage, typical of the Hawk's evening Friday, as El Dorado found Sonora defense unbeatable. Hawks in the action are Craig McIlroy [#19], Haynie [#26], Brian Stack [#60], Rick Hayes [#45], and Kevin Corbett [#74].

Golden Hawks Dip Wings To Sonora

by Brian Hilderbrand

Sonora High School, runner-up in the Orange League, failed to take the back seat to League Champs El Dorado last Friday night, and in doing so, emerged the 1975 CIF 2A Champions. The Raiders ran off with a 27-9 victory.

The game was played at La Mirada Stadium, before an enthusiastic crowd of 7,700 people.

The Raiders played very tough defensively, limiting the usually quick Hawks to a mere 22 yards rushing. Sonora was sparked offensively by halfback Mark Kenlon. Kenlon gained 98 yards on the ground.

As in the last game the two teams played, the Raiders dominated the statistics. However, this time the Hawks got the short end of the stick. Sonora lost the last contest, 7-6.

The key to the game was defense. Sonora possessed it, and El Dorado lacked it.

El Dorado got on the board first, with 1:24 left in the initial quarter. After moving the ball down to the 20 yard line, and failing to push any farther, Todd Peterson was called upon to attempt a 37 yard field goal. The kick was good, giving the Hawks a slim 3-0 lead.

Sonora retaliated with a score of their own just three minutes into the second period. They gained the lead and never looked back, picking up the points in bunches of two touchdowns in each of the second and third quarters.

With a fourth down and 14 yard situation, Sonora tested the Hawks defense as they attempted the first down. Expecting a run, the Hawks let the receivers get away, and Kenlon hit Trip Stevens with a 27 yard pass for the touchdown. Brian Greer kicked the PAT to gain the lead by a score of 7-3.

On the Raiders' next series of plays, they struck again, this time on a two yard run by Kenlon. Greer's PAT kick was good, giving the Raiders a 14-3 lead.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT-Friday night's heartbreaking defeat left many Hawks in tears, but they all poured onto the playing field to sing their Alma Mater, as they do after each game. Win or lose, they're still proud Hawks.

But before the half was over, the Hawks came back with six points to close the gap. Peterson hit Craig McIlroy with a 30 yard pass for the score. The Hawks attempted a two point conversion, but before Peterson could get his pass off, he was sacked. The score stood 14-9, in favor of Sonora, at the half.

El Dorado was held scoreless for the remainder of the game, and held to 27 yards rushing in the second half, while losing 40 yards. The tough Raider defense sacked Peterson for a total loss of 36 yards.

On the second series of plays for Sonora, with 8:27 left on the clock, they picked up another seven points.

With the ball at the two yard line, Brian Greer got the call and burst up the middle for the score. Greer's PAT was good to boost Sonora's lead to 21-9.

The Raiders got their final six points of the game with 1:12 showing in the third period. Kenlon took the ball at the one yard line and leaped over the pile and into the end zone. Greer's PAT was deflected, but the victory was iced at 27-9, with one full quarter left to play.

Kenlon led the Raiders in rushing with 98 yards. Greer picked up 39 yards. Porter passed for 91 yards, completing 8 of 14 passes. Kenlon also threw two passes for 40 yards.

Jim Haynie led the Hawks' rushing with 35 yards in 11 carries. Peterson passed for 94 yards with 6 completions in 14 attempts.

The Golden Hawks finish the season with 11 wins and three losses. ED held an 11 game winning streak going into the game. Sonora ended the season with 12 wins and 2 losses. Sonora won nine games in a row this year, including the CIF victory.

Congratulations are in order to both coaches, Frank Hicks of Sonora and Glen Hastings of El Dorado for their most successful seasons.

Taft Hero; Aztecs Bow

BY CRAIG WILSON

Seldom used guard Bob Taft enabled Esperanza to win their first basketball game of the season as he hit a 15-foot jump shot at the buzzer to beat Walnut in the first round of the Laguna Beach Tournament.

Taft, who had only been in eight seconds of the entire game, made the final score 77-76 in a tough and hard-fought double overtime duel.

The Aztecs blew a 12 point lead late in the fourth quarter and ended up in a 64-64 tie at the end of the game. Things stayed close in the first overtime and it, too, ended up in a tie, 68-68.

In the second extra period, Steve Mead scored four points to keep the Aztecs within distance and that is when Taft brought on his heroics with his game winning shot.

Mead ended up as the Aztecs top scorer with 19 and Kurt Scanlin added 18.

Esperanza then fell in its second game of the tournament by losing to Warren 95-53.

Warren constantly burned the Aztecs on short shots inside the key and opened to a 45-35 lead at half. That was the closest the Aztecs got and the reserves took over in the fourth quarter for the Aztecs, which was dominated by Warren 23-5.

Mead again lead the Aztecs in scoring with 16 points. Mark Mullane of Warren took game honors with 25.

Once again the Aztecs lost when on Friday they took on University. University appeared for a runaway victory early in the fourth quarter but the Aztecs came back to trail only 49-47 with 2:30 left.

Showing no fear, the Trojans responded with six free throws to pull out a 55-51 win. Center Jim Brown had 14 for the Aztecs and Kurt Scanlin added 13. An interesting note showed University with 19 free throws compared to Esperanza's 5.

The last game of the tournament was against La Quinta. La Quinta opened to a 38-30 halftime lead then burst the game open in the fourth quarter and ended up winning 74-64. The Aztecs, now 1-7, were topped by Brown's 20 and Mead's 16.

Hector's Bandits

Hector's Bandits (8-2) defeated Mugsey's Gardners (4-6) and closed the season with a five game win streak as they took first place in the Placentia Recreation and Maintenance Services Department's Winter Fast Pitch League.

Steve Reyes and Lefty Gomez broke a 3-3 deadlock as they each drove in the final run in the seventh to put the game out of reach.

The other two games were not played as Webbs (4-6) forfeited to the Pizza Pub (6-4) and Bridgeford (6-4) won by forfeit over Let's Dine Out (2-8). The Pizza Pub and Bridgeford ended the regular season tied for second and will play one more game at a later date.

VAN WON

Four El Dorado High School students -- Chris Buck, Kathy Hall, Torri Hoffman and Tom Parker---tied for first place in the van painting contest at the Orange County Autorama and Motorcycle Show at the Convention Center. El Dorado's art department received $100.

HAPPIER MOMENTS-El Dorado cheerleader Robin Bodley sits with the cheerleading squad trophy and enjoys the outstanding performance of the El Dorado band and drill team at half time when the Hawks were only down by 5 points, and hopes of a rally were quite high. The trophy is for winning sweepstakes at the Hibbards Cheer Camp last summer. A tie for sweepstakes left the pretty Hawks without their trophy until it was delivered Friday night.

All Star Trophy Wins Slo-Pitch

All Star Trophy (8-2) after having clinched first place last week, dropped their final game of the season to Old Time Inn 11-7 in the Placentia Recreation and Maintenance Services Department's Slo-Pitch Softball League.

Old Time Inn (5-4-1) took an early 8-2 lead and was never in danger as they added three more in the fifth inning. Bob Beach led the hitting attack as he went 3 for 4 with three RBI's.

In other action Cris Roberts (5-5) humilated last place, Alphy's Restaurant 21-5 and second place finisher, Master Batters (6-3-1) ended the year by forfeiting to Rockwell (3-7). Cris Roberts pounded out 24 hits including four by Bob Cristiano who also drove in five runs.

The team will be managed by Mrs. Lee Day and coached by Chuck Juliano and Rick Fleming. Val Schmidt has been appointed Team Captain.

The Pacers are entering the Inter-City League with West Covina, Cypress and Downey. Long Beach and Norwalk are also possible entries again this year.

Although a young team, the girls have an average of 5½ years experience in organized girls softball.

BALLET STEP--Fairmont All Star's Eric Smith executes an intricate maneuver as he tries to avoid Yorba Linda Jr. High defenders in Yorba Linda Recreation Department's flag football championship game won by Fairmont.

Fairmont All Stars Win Rec Football

The end of the Yorba Linda Recreation Department's flag football season was marked by the annual All-Star game, pitting standouts from the Fairmont program against those selected from the Yorba Linda Jr. High program.

Fairmont emerged the victors, winning by a score of 21-0. The Fairmont team scored a touchdown each quarter, except the last, and converted all of their extra point attempts.

Kevin Burkholder started the scoring with a fourth down punt return of 30 yards. Eric Smith then passed to Pat Reading for the extra point. It was a short pass from Smith to Mitch Stutz that brought the total to 13, followed by another extra point catch by Reading.

The last touchdown was scored by Jeff Ennis, on a 40 yard run. Next came an extra point pass, caught by Burkholder. Good rushing and other fine defensive play contributed to the Fairmont win.

The fourth quarter marked a strong defensive rush by the Y.L. Jr. High team, but they were unable to set their offense in motion in time to score.

Playing for the Jr. High team were All-Stars Don Anderson, Bobby Boyd, Eddie Caudill, Leo Caudill, Kevin Dahn, Troy Dyreson, Tim Ferguson, Jeff Graves, Ron Hill, Bobby Marks, Larry Mills, Robby Mills, David Moore, Brian O'Malley, Tracy Porter, Billy Toney, Nick Stevens, and Robby Woodard. They were led by Coach Tim Noble.

Completing the Fairmont squad were Doug Brower, Eric Hollingsworth, Kevin Kane, Scott Kearney, Peter Kennedy, Steve Pinson, John Price, Tom Purcio, Dennis Reese, and Mark Siegel. The Fairmont team was coached by Tim Lawson, assisted by Bob Minor and Mike Sifter.

Basketball is now underway at the two playgrounds, with sign ups-still being taken at Yorba Linda City Hall. There is a $3 registration fee. For more information, phone 524-5020.

The attractive 16-year-old's outstanding play took her to the quarterfinals. The school is in the Freeway League. Miss Salas has played tennis for the past six years and frequently can be seen working out on the El Dorado High School courts. She has also participated in team basketball and badminton at Troy and is a member of the Placentia Tennis Club.

El Dorado Cagers Win, Lose

by Brian Hilderbrand

It was by no means a profitable week for El Dorado's basketball team. Last Tuesday and Wednesday the Hawks lost, but came back Friday to win by a whopping 87-28 margin, but lost again in the Consolation Finals of the Troy Tournament on Saturday.

The Hawks lost their first game of the season last Tuesday against Fullerton in the latter's gym, 62-44. The loss made ED's record 4-1.

Chris Macrorie was leading scorer for the Indians, hitting on eight shots from the floor and three free throws for 19 points. Jay Lucas was second in scoring with 12.

Blake Withers was high for the Hawks with 17 points. Rory Lovell added 14 points.

The Hawks then traveled to Troy for their annual tourney. El Dorado lost to the Downey Vikings, 59-57, in a game that went down to the final buzzer.

ED led 16-8 at the end of the first period, and 28-20 by the end of the first half. The score at the close of the third period was 45-38, Hawks' favor. But behind Bill Day and Toby Simioli, who combined for 15 points, the Vikings outscored ED, 21-12, in the final period.

The score stood at 59-57 with three seconds on the clock. ED's Blake Withers got the ball and drove downcourt and fired off a shot at the buzzer. Had the ball made it, the game would have been tied.

Day and Steve Driessen led the Vikings in scoring with 19 and 12 points, respectively.

Withers led the Hawks with 22 points. Rory Lovell put in 18 points, including 10 in the first period.

After the loss to Downey, the Hawks moved into the consolation bracket of the tourney, to face La Puente's Wilson.

The Hawks returned to their usual form in the game, holding Wilson to under 10 points in each of the four periods.

Blake Withers and Rory Lovell each had 20 points to share high honors. ED had one other player, John Heller, in double figures with 12 points.

Kyle Richards led the Wildcats with 7 points.

The win boosted the Hawks into the Consolation Finals, held Saturday. They met league rival, Brea, in ED's third loss of the week, 50-40.

Dan Hanson led Brea with 17 points. Terry Goodell put in 16 points in the win.

Rory Lovell and Blake Withers each put in 10 points to share high honors for the Hawks.

El Dorado committed 12 team fouls, to Brea's six. The Wildcats took 14 free throws. ED shot no charity shots.

El Dorado will play again on December 30, and 31. If they win on the latter day, the Hawks will play on January 2, all games in the Santiago Tournament.

COLLECTOR'S ITEM--Another impressive trophy for El Dorado High School's marching musicians was added to their collection recently with this first place award from the All Western Band Review in Long Beach. Eighty bands competed and El Dorado was the best among the 14 bands in Class C and rated tenth among all bands. Here, justly proud, are left to right, Richard Watson, band director; Paul Howes, drum major and Jo Ann Ball, assistant principal at the school.

Bands March For Trophies

Marching units from the three high schools in the Placentia Unified School District marched their way to victories at parades throughout the Southland last week.

Top honors were won at major parades by El Dorado's marching band, which won first in its division at the All Western Band Review in Long Beach, and Esperanza's band, which won first in division at the Santa Ana Band Review. Participants in both bands march by invitation only.

Valencia High School's drill team, coached by Sheila Wilson, earned second among 24 units in the drill team division in the Santa Ana parade. Heading the local drill team are Carol McGhehey, captain; Sandy Slikker, co-captain; and Lori Williams, lieutenant.

Eighty bands participated in the Long Beach parade, which included schools from all over the state, according to El Dorado band Director Richard Watson. El Dorado was judged best among the 14 bands in the Class C Division and 10th among all bands.

The win climaxes El Dorado's marching season, which included a first-in-division at the Colton Band Review, thirds at Santa Monica and Anaheim Pacific States band reviews and fourth in the West Arcadia parade.

El Dorado's state championship color guard, under the leadership of Sgt. Willie McKinsey, placed first in the Lynwood Candy Cane Parade Friday night.

Valencia's 40-member marching band, directed by Andrew Bumatay, also brought home a second place trophy from the Lynwood parade. Valencia ended its season with the parade in South Gate Sunday, December 14.

Rounding out Esperanza's winning weekend at the Santa Ana Band Review was a third place for majorette Eleanor Torres, fourth place for Tim McReynolds in mace drum major competition and sixth place for the drum squad. Mike Johnson is director of Esperanza's musical units.

Wrestling Is Rebuilding

Troy High School's 1975-76 wrestling team has little resemblance to last year's Freeway League champions. Gone are almost the entire lineup including, to name just a few, George Bushala, Jeff Reid, Richard Barrow, Joe Kelly, Bob Ryman, Ed Dahms and Glen Stevens.

All these matmen have graduated leaving the Warriors with few remaining members of the team with the best record in Troy wrestling history.

Yet one more disappointment is the fact that Gene Grand won't return to the squad because of arthritis. Grand was an excellent wrestler in the 106 lb. class.

Head Coach Dennis Dixon is not too optimistic after coming off such a fine season but he feels the team is working extremely hard and will improve as the season unfolds. Just how long it takes is the question.

Dixon has a few individuals he picks out as being probable varsity wrestlers and they are, by weight classes:

98 lbs. - Matt McMahon, first in Valencia Tournament, sophomore.

106 lbs. - Tim Lucas, second in Valencia Tournament sophomore.

115 lbs. - John Reid, junior returning varsity wrestler, "Should be very good wrestler this year."

130 lbs. - Jim Baldwin, third at Valencia Tournament, junior returning varsity wrestler, "Should be outstanding for us at 130 lbs."

136 lbs. - Brad Barrow, third at Valencia Tournament, junior returning varsity.

148 lbs. - Tony Bushala and 157 lbs. - Albert Bushala, "Two brothers will be inexperienced but they are both hard workers and will improve a great deal as the season goes on."

168 lbs. - Jeff Loftus, senior returning varsity, "Team leader and will be contender for league championship."

178 lbs. - John Bostwick, junior, "Inexperienced but hard worker."

Heavyweight - Russ Hund, senior returning varsity wrestler.

Warriors Win Own Tourney

BY SCOTT EMBLIDGE

Troy High School defeated three tough teams in the course of a well deserved victory in finals of the Troy Basketball Tournament.

After a slow season's start, a loss to El Dorado and a slim victory over Orange, Troy came back by playing impressive defensive basketball defeating La Puente Wilson, Downey, and Buena Park in order for the tourney crown.

La Puente Wilson was by far the weakest of Troy's tests with the Warriors winning 73-58. Troy showed team strength with three players in double figures, but Wilson almost eliminated themselves by committing 18 turnovers to a tough Warrior press led by Chris Kingdon.

Troy then was set to play Downey, a 59-57 comeback winner over El Dorado that spoiled a Warrior-Hawk rematch.

Troy had lost to El Dorado by four points in their season opener, but the Warriors were without their starting center and probably best player, Mark Pepper. Pepper was the leading scorer against Wilson, along with having a good game rebounding.

Downey had compiled a 5-1 record going into the game and their well-balanced attack gave the Warriors the toughest battle of the tournament.

Troy opened the game with six straight points, but Downey came back to lead 8-7. This set the pace of the game, a seesawing contest with a basket separating the teams almost to the end.

Again, though, Troy's defense along with accurate foul shooting, 22 of 30 including ten straight in the final period, prevailed in a 58-52 victory. Pepper again was the star with 28 points and hard work under the boards.

This set the stage for what could have been a rematch between El Modena and Troy. The Vanguards had ended the Warriors football season with a 19-0 blanking in the CIF playoffs.

Again the rematch was never realized, this time because of Buena Park, a 69-68 winner over El Modena, to set up an all-Freeway League final.

The hot Coyotes looked tough thoughout the tourney with six foot five inch senior forward Tony Chastain leading Buena Park's explosive offense.

In contrast, it was the Warriors hot shooting that turned out to be decisive in the 69-65 victory with Troy shooting 50% from the floor.

Pepper had 18 points and 20 rebounds, but Scott Anderson broke the game open in the third quarter. With the score tied 27-27 at halftime Anderson came back to score nine of Troy's 20 third period points.

Troy's defense gave a fitting conclusion to fine performances throughout the tourney, holding the Coyotes to their lowest point total of the three games.

Students Sing Carols

Approximately 60 children from Miss Honey Leas' and Mrs. Nancy Rushings' 5th grade classes at Sierra Vista Elementary School, spent their after-school hours on Thursday, caroling for senior citizens at Sunhaven Rest Home in Fullerton.

The festive event brought happy tears to the eyes of many patients as they enjoyed the familiar holiday songs.

Handmade quilled snowflakes were presented to each of the patients and impromptu hugs were the order of the day, emphatically proving that no generation gap existed here. Many of the students later expressed an interest in establishing a closer relationship with the seniors.

Miss Leas and Mrs. Rushing were assisted in their enterprise by some thirteen parents, who furnished transportation and supervision for the children.

Antiques Sought For Heritage House

Items and antiques for Heritage House, including everything from an upright piano to the kitchen sink, are being sought to properly furnish the home located in the Arboretum on the California State University at Fullerton campus.

Dedication dates for the vintage residence have been set for May 14 and 15, 1976. At that time the public will be invited to walk through the reburbished Victorian cottage built in 1894 by Dr. George C. Clark, one of Fullerton's first physicians and city councilmen.

After that date, docent guided tours will be available by appointment only.

Loans or donations of antiques may be made by calling Lois Herron at 528-2869; Pat Baur, 993-3786 or the Arboretum office at 870-3250.

The list of antiques needed includes such items as wall paper, kerosene lamps, rugs, tables, chairs, pictures, linens, a stove, piano, books, bottles, dishes, canning jars, aprons, a buggy and an outhouse.

An 'all-girl' Christmas Party was held earlier in December in the home of Mrs. Ed Smith, Yorba Linda with a secret sister gift exchange and holiday festivities.

Upsilon Omicron members and their husbands will ring in the New Year together this year in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Yager, Anaheim.

Poetess Betty Unger At Work On New Book

Encouraged by her readers and friends who have warmly received and appreciated her recent book of poetry, "From My Heart To Yours", Betty Unger is contemplating another book of true-life inspirational poems, which will be called, "From My Heart To Yours" Volume II.

BETTY E. UNGER

Mrs. Unger displayed outstanding talent in writing poetry in the lower grades in school and her work was displayed in high schools, colleges, libraries, and in art exhibits. The poems in her recent book, "From My Heart To Yours" volume I are read over the John Brown University Radio Station, KGER, Long Beach, on Saturday and Sunday mornings on their "Songs of Faith Devotional Hour", and have received much praise and recognition from the listeners.

She was a school teacher by profession, having majored in English, writing, poetry, speech, and journalism. She received her Bible education at Lincoln Nebraska Bible College, and successfully completed courses in Christian writing at the Clyde M. Narrymore Foundation College in Rosemead, Calif.

Mrs. Unger is author of more than 400 poems which relate true and interesting experiences in her life. They are written with a clarity which makes them enjoyable and easy to understand. People tell her it is hard to lay her book down after starting to read it and often read it to the end.

She is also author of five published stories: "The Best Christmas", "Reflections On Easter", "It Could Happen To You", "A Day To Remember", and "So You're Going To Have Open Heart Surgery". The latter was written after frequent hospitalizations with a congenital heart condition. Faced with open surgery she began research work on this subject, getting her information and facts from numerous heart specialists and their literature.

Mrs. Unger was born in Nashua, Iowa, home of the famous "Little Brown Church in the Wildwood", where her father was pastor for a time.

Her new book, "From My Heart To Yours" Volume II will be published some time in the future. The book will be sold in some of the Orange County book stores, also personally by the author.

Mrs. Unger and her husband, Edwin L. reside at 714 Royal Stewart Drive, Placentia.

TRAVELERS

Fred and Martha Jones in far-off Hong Kong dropped us a line to say they have just returned from a two-week combined vacation and business trip to Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur and Singapore. Earlier this year they made a trip to the Philippines. Another "interesting" experience was waiting out a 120-mile an hour typhoon in their 16th floor apartment....

Mothers March Scheduled

A March of Dimes is scheduled for January 8th at 9:30 a.m. sponsored by the Junior Roundtable of Placentia at their Clubhouse, 901 N. Bradford.

"March of Dimes Mothers March volunteers are hoping that more people from Placentia will show the Spirit of '76' and join us in our annual appeal to prevent birth defects" says Myra Frank and Lynn McClard, Health Chairmen of the very active service club.

"We would like our Bicentennial neighbor-to-neighbor Mothers March Campaign to be the strongest ever in combatting the physical and mental risks that threaten over 200,000 infants born every year in the United States.

To meet this challenge, the March of Dimes is focusing on a range of prenatal health services. These include early diagnosis of the high-risk pregnant woman to protect her health and that of her unborn child; establishing educational programs to upgrade the skills of health professionals in prenatal care; supporting improved facilities for intensive care of the critically ill newborn; and public health education programs, particularly among young people," said Bonnie Steel, Placentia Mothers March Area Chairman.

"Even in a computer age, there is no substitute for volunteer help in getting a job done, and done well. And the name Mothers' March shouldn't be misleading. The traditional January campaign welcomes men as well as women and any interested teenagers," explained Ms. Steele. Those interested in joining the Mothers' March should call Elva Frederking at the Orange County Chapter March of Dimes at 979-2270.

CHOC COUPLES--gathered last week for their annual Littlest Angels Guild Christmas Party. Guild President Mrs. Doris Knauft and husband Roy enjoyed food with Mrs. Robert Waidneck, hospitality chairman.

Guild Yule Party

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knauft recently opened up their home at 5668 Kellogg Dr. to members of The Littlest Angel Guild of Childrens Hospital for their annual Christmas Party which began with 6:30 cocktails and followed by a catered dinner to members and their husbands.

All arrangements for the affair were made by Mrs. Robert Woidnick, Hospitality Chairman for the Guild.

The Littlest Angel Guild is one of 17 Guilds in Orange County who raise funds and foster interest in Childrens Hospital.

All funds raised by the Guild help afford fees for part-pay patients in various specialized out-patient clinics. Mrs. Knauft is 1975-76 President of the Guild.

Senior Programs

The County Senior Citizens' Program Office has called for contract bids to establish four new county-wide service programs for Seniors, Walter L. Scales, Garden Grove, office director, announced.

The programs involve legal advocacy, Senior minority services, home health aides, and nursing home advocacy. They will be financed by Older Americans' Act Title III funds available to the county office.

Requests for proposal forms and instructions are being issued by the Orange County Procurement Department at 1300 South Grand Avenue in Santa Ana. Robert Williams at 834-3455 is in charge for the county department.

Deadline for bid submissions to the Procurement Department is 5 p.m. January 2.
